Resolution No. 1819-14
A Resolution Regarding the Pay Structure of Assistant Directors

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY HERE GATHERED THAT:

WHEREAS, In AY17-18, by passing Resolutions 1718-04 and 1718-12, the General Assembly created six new Assistant Director positions to assist the Executive Officers with narrow tasks, and

WHEREAS, Those dedicated individuals occupying these positions are provided a small honorarium to show GPC’s appreciation for their service, and

WHEREAS, These honoraria were designed to be paid out at the end of one year’s worth of service, and

WHEREAS, This is not an equitable pay structure in the sense that an Assistant Director who works for, say, eight of the nine regular academic months but leaves their position for any reason will be ineligible for any compensation for their time, therefore be it

RESOLVED, By two-thirds vote of the General Assembly here gathered that the General Assembly adopt the changes to the Bylaws according to Appendix I below, and be it further

RESOLVED, That these changes reflect two payout periods for Assistant Director positions, one at the end of each academic semester, rather than one payout period at the end of the academic year.

SUBMITTED,
Al Willsey, President

APPENDIX I – BYLAWS

4.11.8. Honorariums for Assistant Directors are paid out in two installments of one-half of the total amount budgeted for their honoraria at the end of term each semester of their one-year term during which they for a successfully completed term the tasks assigned to them, and which shall not be paid out for removal or resignation.